FROM THE PRESIDENT

PRESIDENT'S CIRCLE

THE FOLLOWING INDIVIDUALS CONTRIBUTED $500 TO $999 TO ALPA-PAC IN 2020.

CAPITOL CLUB

THE FOLLOWING INDIVIDUALS CONTRIBUTED $240 TO $499 TO ALPA-PAC IN 2020.

100 CENTURY CLUB

THE FOLLOWING INDIVIDUALS CONTRIBUTED $100 TO $239 TO ALPA-PAC IN 2020.

Too often, politics seems to divide us. It's divisive. It's messy. There's far too much finger-pointing. But as much as politics are those things, politics can also unite us because it's a way to get things done.

For ALPA members, building political relationships is how we're able to successfully promote our pilot-partisan agenda. ALPA-PAC was established to maintain and cultivate our political relationships, and it's one of the ways politics does unite us as the PAC symbolizes our unified voice in the political arena.

A year ago, we knew the recovery of the travel industry would be different from that of other industries and that the demand for air travel would rebound. We knew that unless airlines were able to keep employees on the payroll, the recovery would take longer and have the potential to be a major concern for safety as pilots lost currency and would require training to return to the flight deck.

This is where politics comes in. We needed elected leaders to listen to our concerns and understand why addressing them was crucial to the recovery of the airline industry and to our role in responding to the pandemic and helping to rebuild the economy.

ALPA needed to speak with one voice. We needed to be at the table telling our story and providing our perspective on what was important to us.

ALPA-PAC provides us with those opportunities to speak on the issues vital to our profession—the issues that we as pilots can get behind and support due to the strength of our PAC.

Over the last 18 months, due to retirements and voluntary early-outs, more than 1,800 ALPA-PAC supporters have left ALPA and are no longer contributing to the PAC. Many of these individuals are listed in the Roll of Distinction on the following pages, and I want to sincerely thank them and our other PAC contributors for their continued support over the years.

As we will surely face future challenges to our profession, it's essential that we continue to grow our relationships with elected leaders and stand together with one voice. It's more critical than ever that new supporters step forward and contribute to our political outreach and success on Capitol Hill by backing ALPA-PAC.

Together, we're stronger.

Sincerely,

Capt. Joe DePete
ALPA President
