FROM THE PRESIDENT

The pilots whose names appear on the following pages have served as frontline leaders in making certain our union has one of the strongest—and most bipartisan—Political Action Committees in U.S. labor. Thanks to their dedication, ALPA is positioned to deliver the best possible representation for pilots in Washington, D.C.

Last year, ALPA-PAC exceeded 13,000 members for the first time. These pilots clearly understand that the progress we achieve on Capitol Hill makes ALPA's pilot groups stronger across the United States and benefits every pilot as they fly the line.

We experience firsthand the value of our engagement with lawmakers—and specifically the role of ALPA-PAC in demonstrating our solidarity not only on the flight deck but across all ALPA pilot groups. The strength of our voluntary PAC participation also reflects how ALPA pilots are paying attention to the issues and are ready to take a stand—and lawmakers know it.

ALPA's pilot-partisan approach is the reason that we're positioned to lead aviation policy as the next FAA reauthorization is developed and issues that can threaten the safety of the skies and the security of our jobs, such as reduced-crew flight operations and degradation of first officer qualifications, are debated.

The commitment made by the pilots listed on these next pages shows their willingness to do more for our union, more for our profession, and more for our passengers and cargo shippers. Truly, their commitment will influence our profession and our industry for decades to come.

Capt. Jason Ambrosi
ALPA President
